

Vision

- To take the necessary steps to protect, preserve and replant the local remnant Tropical Dry Evergreen Forest
- To create centres of environmental education and training in rural and coastal contexts
- To raise awareness about appropriate water supply and sanitation facilities
- To document and encourage the use of indigenous medicinal plants and promote local health traditions