

Pitchandikulam Forest Consultants

Pitchandikulam Forest Consultants (PFC) is a commercial unit under the Auroville Foundation providing logistics and support to manifest eco-restoration projects.

Current and past projects include:

- Lead consultants in the ecological restoration of 58-acres of the Adyar Creek estuary in Chennai.
- East Coast Road toll gate landscaping and erection of environmental education signages
- Keerampakkam planting of an innovative water collection pond in collaboration with Anna University
- Corporation of Chennai Otteri Tropical Dry Evergreen Forest
- Erection of environmental education signages at the Corporation of Chennai Marina
- Moogiyur Eco Park
- Joint Project with the Forest Department to plant TDEF Species in Coastal Plantations