

Funders

Over

the past 15 years PBRC has implemented a number of projects towards our stated vision of Restoring the Tropical Dry Evergreen Forest. Completed projects include: Quaker Service Australia (QSA) / AUSAID and United Bank of Switzerland (UBS).- 'Poverty Reduction and Empowerment for Women in Tamil Nadu'

- 'Coastal Eco-Restoration for the Kaliveli Bioregion' ECTDEF- 'Restoration of the Tropical Dry Evergreen Forest in the Kaliveli Bioregion'

FLRHT

- 'Revitalisation of Traditional Medicine Practices and the Flora in the Kaliveli Bioregion'

CAPART

- 'Restoration of the Indigenous Flora of the Kaliveli Bioregion'

Wetland International

- 'Integrated Environment Education for Coastal Village Schools'

- 'Integrated Garden and Nursery Development at Koonimedu Panchayat'

- 'Coromandal Coast Eco-restoration Programme' Quaker Service Australia / AUSAID

- 'Establishment of Nadukuppam Environment Education Centre'

- 'Support for Womens Self Help Groups in the Kaliveli Bioregion'

UNESCO- "Nadukuppam Environment Education Centre"

The Jane Goodall Institute - Roots and Shoots

- "Establishing six Roots and Shoots Eco-clubs within the Kaliveli Bio-region"